AAMS Excellence in Community Service Award

AAMS Excellence in Community Service Award recognizes an emergency medical transport individual OR organizations demonstrating a broad-based continuing commitment to their referring/receiving agencies, and the communities they serve. The award recipient will exhibit an outstanding history of leadership or substantial involvement/partnership in customer or community-based project(s) that contribute to improving the quality of life within the communities they serve. Although eligibility requires membership with the Association of Air Medical Services, the nominated project is NOT LIMITED to practices solely in air or ground medicine. This recipient will have shown professional and personal values that typify the ideals of “giving of oneself,” and “making a difference in, or enhancing the lives of others.” We welcome projects of all sizes and scope, no matter the financial resources involved.

ELIGIBILITY: Marketing, medical, aviation, management, or any support personnel who are involved in the development and implementation of a customer or community-based project that has made a positive impact on the service community, customer base on a local, regional, national or international level. The candidate must be a member of AAMS (either Regular, Affiliate, or Personal member.) Any nomination received shall be reviewed by AAMS staff before the nomination is placed before the judges to ensure that the nominee has not been the recipient of the same award within the last three calendar years.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

A. The project should be based upon a need that was identified within their service community by the nominee. The candidate must show how the need was fulfilled through the project.

B. Detail ONE project the candidate completed from conception to implementation. The project should not be one that is focused or geared towards providing an increased transport volume or revenue for the organization but rather to make a difference in the lives of others. The project may include their service area community or referring/receiving agencies. The project will be judged on creativity or originality.

C. Illustrate the project’s clear and measurable positive impact on the service community. Submissions will be judged on how well the project met the scope of its objectives.

D. Provide documentation of leadership and long-term commitment to the service community. Documentation should show a pattern of an on-going partnership with either the service community that enhances any of the following: clinical skills, education, safety, or overall quality of life.

E. Supporting documentation must be provided. This documentation may include digital photos, digital video files, letters of support from community leaders, customers, or documents developed for the project.
Please answer the following five required questions for the AAMS Excellence in Community Service Award nomination:

(Submittals, where the same answers are merely cut and pasted for each question, will be disqualified.)

1.) The project should be based upon a need that was identified within the service community by the candidate. The nomination must show how the need was fulfilled through the project. Please describe how the nominee's project met this requirement. * (1,500 Character Limit including spaces)

2.) Detail ONE project the candidate completed from conception to implementation. The project should not be one that is focused or geared towards providing increased transport volume or revenue for the organization but rather to make a difference in the lives of others. The project may include their service area community or referring/receiving agencies. The project will be judged on creativity or originality. Please explain how the nominee's project met this requirement. * (1,500 Character Limit including spaces)

3.) Illustrate a clear and measurable positive impact on the service community/customer base. Submissions will be judged on how well the project met the scope of its objectives. Please describe below how the nominee’s project made this type of impact. * (1,500 Character Limit including spaces)

4.) Provide documentation of leadership and long-term commitment to the service community/customer base. Documentation should show a pattern of an on-going partnership with either the service community/customer base that enhances any of the following: clinical skills, education, safety, or overall quality of life. Please describe below how the project and its documentation met this requirement.
   * (1,500 Character Limit including spaces)

5.) Supporting documentation must be provided. This documentation may include digital photos, digital video files, letters of support from community leaders, customers, or documents developed for the project.
   - *All nominations for the AAMS Excellence in Community Service Award must use section four listed above to meet this award’s fifth question.
